

Mr. K was a longtime resident of Middletown CT. He was a proud World War II Veteran and retired Sergeant after 37 years with the Middletown Police Department. Mr. K was an instructor at the Meriden Police Academy, a founder and organizer of the Police Explorer group, and a driving instructor with Big A Driving School. After his retirement, he served as a State Marshall for 14 years and the corporate photographer for CES.

Mr. K was our personal paparazzi, portrait taker and story teller. He was always ready with camera at hand to take photos of holiday parties, company meetings, summertime picnics and (of course) our annual golf tournament. He loved to get candid shots, capturing everyone as they were in the moment. Not only did he provide us with great memories of events at the office, but he was more than willing to help by delivering drawings to clients or running errands to the post office or bank.

It has been 10+ years since his passing and there is still an emptiness at our office without him, especially during company events and holidays. Although we miss Mr. K every day, his memory lives on in the stories we tell and the smiles and laughter that his name brings to any person who knew him.
